

RANCOCAS COLORS IN FRONT.

PIERRE LORILLARD'S ANCKE WINS AT MORRIS PARK.

Daughter of Loochatchee Makeda Fast Time and Provides a "Killing" Boner, 9 to 20, and Kilogram, 1 to 7, Beaten—Three Favorites Win—Entries

Though the card did not contain a notable stake event, the sport at Morris Park yesterday afternoon fairly bristled with notable incidents, including the defeat of three odds-on favorites, Bonner, 9 to 20, Kilogram, 1 to 7, and Stover, 9 to 10. Perhaps the most conspicuous proceeding was the resumption of the famous Rancocas colors, carried to victory in the second event by Pierre Lorillard's two-year-old filly, Ancke, by Loochatchee. It was the first time that Mr. Lorillard had raced since the death of his father and the fact that the familiar silk of Rancocas, "cherry with black hoops," was worn by Bonner took many back to the days when Lorillard was a name to be reckoned with in turf affairs. Ancke had been trained by Jack Joyner, along with David Gideon's youngsters, and had displayed such remarkable speed that Mr. Gideon and his friends got ready to make one of their old-time "killings." Accordingly Ancke was added to the start for the Picking race for maiden two-year-old fillies, twenty pounds under the scale, run over the last half mile of the Eclipse course.

With J. G. Folansbee's Daisy Green scratched, the talent made W. C. Whitney's Hastings filly Makeda the favorite at 4 to 1, but in less than time it takes to tell it, she was actually forgotten in the whirlwind that struck the betting ring as soon as the layers put up 6 to 1 against Mr. Lorillard's filly. Quick as their nimble fingers could change the odds, the price fell, the filly finally going to the post, fronting the field with even a shorter price on many of the states. Thirteen youngsters were called upon to go, but the Gougherses' Stables' Shiraz refused to break and was left. In a wild scramble for the lead, Ancke showed both speed and strength. Before the first furlong had been completed she was showing the Rancocas colors in front. Makeda, impetuous and strong, rushed after the daughter of Loochatchee, all ridden hard, but she had plenty of reserve power and in the final drive she lured the race by three parts of a length in 1:04 1/2, which is but a quarter of a second over the course at that distance. Makeda was second, hard driven by Cochran, half length behind. Intentional who beat Bonner a neck.

There are times when even Mr. Gideon fails to pick the winner. It was shown in the fourth event, for three-year-olds, at six and a half furlongs on the main track, that Mr. Gideon's filly, Bonner, was a 9 to 20 favorite. Mr. Gideon, among numerous others, probably believed that Bonner was the best horse ready, for they played Perry Belmont's Maudslayi all over the ring at 11 to 5. The only other starter was the two-year-old Cryptogram, ridden by Tommy Burns, who was allowed to go up to 12 to 1 at post time. The women in the grand stand, who are wild about the filly, called her a "killing" and played Bonner's mounts these days with much persistence, all the while betting up on Mr. Gideon's gelding, so there was a scene of intense excitement and screaming hilarity when Bonner, half a mile from the finish, was in such a cool-headed, scientific way, too, that the crowd laughed.

It was done in such a cool-headed, scientific way, too, that the crowd laughed. Bonner, half a mile from the finish, was in such a cool-headed, scientific way, too, that the crowd laughed. Bonner, half a mile from the finish, was in such a cool-headed, scientific way, too, that the crowd laughed. Bonner, half a mile from the finish, was in such a cool-headed, scientific way, too, that the crowd laughed.

Those individuals who are in the habit of betting $100 to win $100 for "supper money" at Central Park's Casino, thought they had found the surest thing in the world when they bet on the filly. Bonner was installed at 1 to 7 favorite to win the race, and the odds were 1 to 7. Though there were nineteen horses, including some good ones, on the card, just when it seemed that the filly was about to be beaten, she came out of the crowd and won by a neck.

For the opening event, a selling race for three-year-olds and upward, by subscription of $5 each, with $100 added, the winner to be a half mile of the Eclipse course. The card was made up of the following: Hastings filly Makeda, 4 to 1; Loochatchee filly Ancke, 9 to 20; Kilogram, 1 to 7; Stover, 9 to 10; and three favorites, Bonner, 9 to 20; Maudslayi, 11 to 5; and Cryptogram, 12 to 1.

The following are the results of the races at Morris Park yesterday afternoon: First race, for three-year-olds and upward, by subscription of $5 each, with $100 added, the winner to be a half mile of the Eclipse course.

Second race, for three-year-olds and upward, by subscription of $5 each, with $100 added, the winner to be a half mile of the Eclipse course.

IN THE BASEBALL WORLD.

NEW YORKS HAVE YET TO WIN A GAME IN THE WEST.

Three Straight Defeats in Chicago and Twice Shut Out—How Overcoming of Pitcher's Box—Pittsburgh Handle Brooklyn's Roughly—Reids in Last Place

The New Yorks so far have fallen down hard in the West. They seem to have left their batting ability behind, for they were whitewashed yesterday for the second time in three days. The Chicagoans did it three straight, as the Harlemites could not hit St. Vrain, a newcomer. There was a wrangle during the game, owing to the pitcher's box being fifteen inches short of the proper distance. Manager Fogel of the New Yorks protested and will take exception to all games played by the club in Chicago. The Bostonians beat the Chicagoans, who fell back to the tail end, and are pressing the New Yorks closely for third place. The New Yorks are the only team that has not won a game since the Western series began. The Brooklynites were severely handled by the Pittsburghers yesterday and the Philadelphia's were beaten by St. Louis. The American League race continues the more interesting of the two, St. Louis leading Detroit yesterday, taking the lead from Philadelphia, the latter being defeated by Baltimore. Washington won from Boston, and Chicago downed Cleveland. The National League results and record follow:

Team	W	L	Draw	Pct.
Pittsburgh	8	2	0	.800
Philadelphia	7	3	0	.700
Chicago	6	4	0	.600
New York	5	5	0	.500
Boston	4	6	0	.400
St. Louis	3	7	0	.300
Brooklyn	2	8	0	.200
Cleveland	1	9	0	.100
Washington	0	10	0	.000

CHICAGO, May 9. St. Vrain, the left-hander from Montana, pitched magnificent ball for Chicago today and shut out New York by a score of 5 to 0. The men from Gotham held in fairly close fashion, but their batting and base running would have cleared the last end club in any of the other leagues. To add to the troubles of the visitors, the pitcher's box of the afternoon was protested by Manager Fogel of the New York club just before the game began. Fogel said that the distance from the pitcher's box to the home plate at the West Side Park was shorter than the required distance. The umpire ruled in favor of the home team, and the game began after a delay of twenty minutes. Fogel said that he will protest all the games played by New York this season.

PITTSBURGH, May 9. The champions turned the tables on Brooklyn today and won with ease. Campbell kept the base hits scattered, while Donovan was ineffective after the second inning. The score was 10 to 0. The Brooklynites were defeated by a score of 10 to 0. The Brooklynites were defeated by a score of 10 to 0.

ST. LOUIS, May 9. The jumping jacks drew a good crowd to the fairgrounds today and far outnumbered the spectators. Five of the ten men from the fairgrounds were defeated by the New Yorks. The New Yorks were defeated by a score of 5 to 0. The New Yorks were defeated by a score of 5 to 0.

COLLEGE GOLF AT GARDEN CITY

HITCHCOCK AND McFARLAND TO MEET TODAY IN FINAL

Latter a Dark Horse From Pennsylvania Who Has Made a Mark—Great Scoring by the Yale Captain in the Gale—Harvard and Princeton Out of the Race

Twice the runner up, Hitchcock will once more have a try for the championship of the Intercollegiate Golf Association to-day on the links of the Garden City Golf Club. The final round will be at thirty-six holes and his opponent will be McFarland, a six-foot four-inch freshman from Pennsylvania University who played No. 1 on the team and has a great reputation as the coming man among the golfers about Philadelphia. Hitchcock has put out in turn Jackson, Reinhardt and Wilson, who won the score made with 79, and incidentally the Yale captain has made 25, and yesterday in spite of a terrific gale he went out in 27. The most beaten by McFarland were Campbell, H. C. Egan and Pool, and in no match has he been worse than 35. An odd occurrence was that five of the six matches were won by the same score, 3 up and 2 to play. The Hitchcock and Wilson match attracted the most attention, but the most notable happening was the grand outward score of the former in the morning.

The Hitchcock and Wilson match began at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. As usual before the start of a match Hitchcock went through a series of calisthenics to limber up, ending with a hand spring. Wilson, however, went straight to the tee and hit his second shot in 17. The most beaten by McFarland were Campbell, H. C. Egan and Pool, and in no match has he been worse than 35. An odd occurrence was that five of the six matches were won by the same score, 3 up and 2 to play.
